Course Description

The purpose of the course is to provide an introduction to different approaches to psychotherapy and counselling and to allow students to begin to formulate their personal view on counselling.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge in counselling psychology.
2. Critically evaluate, synthesize and resolve conflicting results in counselling psychology.
3. Articulate trends in counselling psychology.
4. Locate research articles and show critical thinking about research findings in counselling psychology.
5. Express knowledge of counselling psychology in written form.
6. Engage in evidence-based dialogue with course director and peers.
7. Demonstrate an ability to work with others.

Specific Learning Objectives

Identify the philosophical foundation underlying each theory studied in class, and demonstrate how it shapes the development of theoretical constructs and models of intervention. Demonstrate the ability to convey a knowledgeable and evidenced-based understanding of a specific theory of counselling not covered in class.

Description of Assignments

Personal Theory Paper (7%) First draft: Sept. 28, 2016. Second draft: October 12, 2016

This is a maximum four page (double-spaced) paper outlining your own theory of personality and counselling. Describe in your own words your view of personality, important factors that contribute to personality development and the essential features necessary to explain how we function. Try and discern the underlying assumptions of human nature. Include a discussion about what you think motivates human beings. In addition, describe your theory of counselling and show how it is related to your theory of personality. What do you think is necessary for psychotherapy to be effective? What are important factors for facilitating change? Outline what you would emphasize in therapy, the topics you feel would be important to cover and the types of information you feel you would need to have in order to work effectively with your client. Identify and define up to four core constructs that guide the way you think about psychotherapy.

N.B.: It is important that this material reflect your own thinking. Do not describe an existing theory. Do not refer to any texts. Write in the first person.

The first draft of the paper is due Sept. 28, 2016. It will be edited by a peer in your class. After receiving your peer-reviewed feedback, make any changes you think are necessary. Hand in both the first draft (along with your peer-editor's comments) and the second draft during class on October 12, 2016. Additionally, submit your final draft to turnitin via the link on moodle.

Editorial Comments (3%)

Return to writer by October 5, 2016

You will read one of your colleague's Personality Theory paper. Provide the writer with comments and questions that you believe will help them to express their ideas more clearly and effectively. Type your comments on a separate sheet of paper. Hand the comments and the original paper back to the writer by October 7. You will be graded on the clarity and usefulness of your own feedback. N.B.: Your promptness regarding turn-around-time is very important.

Film review (4%)

A part of each class will be devoted to a film review. Students will sign up to be a discussant. Film discussants will need to preview the film. Most films are available as electronic resources through the York library. Because viewing time is limited to 10-15 minutes, you will need to select a portion of the film you believe would be most useful for the class to see. After the class views the selected portions, you will give your reactions to the film as a means of stimulating class discussion. N.B.: This is NOT a presentation. Your objective is to help facilitate a class discussion. Please note: the library takes reserved films off of the shelf 1 week prior to the viewing date. This means students will need to review their films on an earlier date.

In Class tests

Test #1 (20%) October 26, 2016: Corsini Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, 9, all lecture slides, plus AR 1) Seligman and 2) What is a theory ?

Test #2 (24%) January 25, 2017 Corsini Chapters 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, all lecture slides plus AR Corey

Both tests will consist of multiple choice, short answer and essay style questions covering the text and supplemental chapters covered to date. The second test is not cumulative.

Seminar Presentation (12%) February 1 to March 29, 2017

Each student is expected to make a presentation to the rest of the class in the second term. Your one-hour presentation will be done in a group of three people. The presentation can include lecture, audiovisual material, exercises, and guided group discussion. A list of suggested topics will be provided. Feel free to discuss additional topics with me. Topics and presentation dates will be established early in the first term. You will need to have your topic and proposed readings approved by the course director. You will be expected to research your area of interest and present the material in a clear and organized manner.

More specific guidelines regarding the expectations for the presentation will be discussed in class.

Final Paper (20%) March 30, 2016

The term paper may be an elaboration of the same topic as the seminar presentation, or students can choose a different topic (with approval of the Course Director). Details will be announced in class. The paper should be written in accordance with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Papers should be approximately 10-12 double spaced pages (2500-3000 words).

Participation (10%)

Class participation will be evaluated based on active and informed participation and reflection in all class discussions and exercises. Please note, this mark is not based on attendance per se, however, it goes without saying that attendance is necessary in order to participate. It will be helpful to prepare for each meeting by completing the assigned readings prior to each class.

Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

(For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - calendars.students.yorku.ca/2016-2017/academic-and-financial-information/academic-services/grades-and-grading-schemes)

Late Work/Missed Tests or Exams

Students with a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (Attending Physician Statement which can be found at: <http://registrar.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf>) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Timeline for submitting Attending Physician's Statement – 48 hours. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.. One make-up test will be held for students who have a documented absence. It is the student's responsibility to attend that test. Undocumented late papers that are late will be deducted 20% per day

Information on Plagiarism Detection

The University has subscribed to the Turnitin service which helps professors identify internet plagiarism and helps students maintain academic integrity. The work submitted by students in this course will be submitted to Turnitin. Students who do not want their work submitted to this plagiarism detection service must, by the end of the second class, consult with the instructor to make alternate arrangements

Electronic Device Policy

Electronic devices are to be used in class for course work only. In respect for other students, refrain from using electronic devices in class for personal or entertainment purposes.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all seminar classes. While participation depends on being in class, the grade for participation is not based on attendance per se.

Academic Integrity for Students

York University takes academic integrity very seriously, please visit an overview of Academic Integrity at York University from the Office of the Vice-President Academic.
