General Description:
The primary goal of this course is to provide students with an introduction to research and theorizing in social psychology. Topics covered in this course will include research methods, attitudes and social information processing, social influence, the self, group processes, prejudice, aggression, altruism, and interpersonal attraction.

Class Format:
One three hour class will be held each week consisting of lectures, video clips, and class discussions.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:
1. Demonstrate broad knowledge of social determinants of behaviour.
2. Describe and evaluate current theory and research in social psychology.
3. Understand and interpret principles of social psychology in everyday life.
4. Define causes of social behaviour from different perspectives.

Required Textbook:
Greenberg, Schmader, Arndt, & Landau
Worth Publishers: New York

Price Textbook - $133
Price ebook (Launchpad) - $70

Course Requirements and Assessment:
(1) Exam 1 – Wednesday, Feb. 1, 2017 30%
(2) Exam 2 – Wednesday, March 15, 2017 30%
(3) Final Cumulative Exam – Exam Period (April 8 - 24, 2017) 40%

Please note that it is important to show up for all exams on time. To be fair to other students and to prevent unethical behavior, students who are more than 30 minutes late will not be allowed to write the exam.

Grading as per Senate Policy
The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

Requests for re-evaluation of exams must be received before the last class of the term.

Missed Exams
Students with a documented reason for missing a course exam, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation, may request accommodation from the course instructor. Supporting documentation can include an Attending Physician Statement (APS), http://registrar.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf, or for nonmedical reasons, other types of documentation (e.g., death certificate, accident report, airline ticket for emergency travel). Please ensure that the contact information for the attending physician is clearly written on the APS form. To be fair to other students, accommodation will only be offered under exceptional circumstances. Missing an exam for travel or work is not a valid reason. The completed APS must be provided in person to a teaching assistant within 48 hours of a missed midterm.

There will be no makeup exams for Exam 1 and Exam 2. If the student misses one exam, provides the proper documentation and contacts a teaching assistant within 48 hours, the grade on the final cumulative exam will be reweighted to include the missed component. If the student misses both Exam 1 and Exam 2, the student will be required to meet with the course director, Dr. Kawakami, and with the Associate Undergraduate Program Director when requested by the course director, and it may be recommended that the student withdraw from the course. If the student misses the final cumulative exam, provides the proper documentation and contacts the teaching assistant within 48 hours, the student may petition for Deferred Standing. Only one makeup final exam will be offered at a date determined by the Course Director.
