

(3) BA Honours student hoping to go to grad school in Clinical Psychology or Counseling

This student completed PSYC 1010 and all the Gen Ed Requirements in 1st year

Year 2

Fall term	Winter term
PSYC 2020 (6) Statistics	PSYC 2020 (6) (cont'd)
PSYC 2120 (3) Social Psychology	PSYC 2030 (3) Research Methods
PSYC 2240 (3) Biological Basis of Behav.	PSYC 2130 (3) Personality
Non-Psych elective	Non-Psych elective
Non-Psych elective	Non-Psych elective

Year3

Fall term	Winter term
PSYC 3140 Abnormal Psych	PSYC 3265 Memory
PSYC 3260 Cognition	PSYC 3170 Health Psychology
PSYC 3350 Cultural Psychology	PSYC 3480 Psych of Women
Non-Psych elective	Non-Psych elective
Non-Psych elective	Non-Psych elective

- by this point, this student has fulfilled all the degree requirements in terms of Stats and Research Methods, 21-, 3100 and 22-, 3200 foundation courses, all their basic and elective science requirements, and at least 18 credits at the 3000 level.
- provided this student had taken 6 elective credits in 1st year, they would be eligible to graduate with a 90 credit degree at the end of 3rd year if they wished to

Year 4

Fall term	Winter term
PSYC 4000 (thesis)	PSYC 4000 (thesis)
PSYC 4190 Seminar in Health Psychology	PSYC 4270(3) Seminar in Memory & Cognition
PSYC 4060 Counselling	PSYCH 4060 Counselling (Cont'd)
Non-Psych elective	Non-Psych elective
Elective Psychology or other	Elective Psychology or other

- 18 credits at 4000 level, at least 12 of them in Psychology fulfilled; thesis completed; has also completed at least 18 elective credits outside Psychology
- this student has also met the York clinical admission requirement of having 6 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level in each of :

Social Bases (Cultural, Psych of Women)
 Cognitive-Affective Psychology (Cognition, Seminar in Cognition)
 Biological Bases (Health Psychology, Seminar in Health Psychology)

Individual Differences (Abnormal Psych, Counselling Psychology)