Course Description

This course reviews a selection of the currently best-known psychotherapeutic approaches. It examines these approaches in terms of their views on: (a) human nature, (b) the composition of the psychotherapeutic problem, and (c) the strategy used to resolve the problem.

The grading scheme of this course aims to create an opportunity for deeper study; thus, the class work is distributed throughout the course. There is an assignment for every class, regular journal entries, 2 exams, and a paper.
Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge in theoretical approaches to counselling and psychotherapy.
2. Critically evaluate, synthesize and resolve conflicting results in theoretical approaches to counselling and psychotherapy.
3. Articulate trends in theoretical approaches to counselling and psychotherapy.
4. Locate research articles and show critical thinking about research findings in theoretical approaches to counselling and psychotherapy.
5. Express knowledge of theoretical approaches to counselling and psychotherapy in written form.
7. Demonstrate an ability to work with others.

Specific Learning Objectives

Learning will be accomplished through multiple means, including:
- Weekly analytical summaries of each of the approaches covered.
- Class discussions.
- Writing and presenting a comparison paper.
- Keeping a self-nurture journal.
- Working with a team.

Description of Assignments

2 exams
• Each one will cover all the topics scheduled since the last exam, unless specified otherwise.
• Multiple-choice format

Weekly Assignments
• All assignments are to be typed and written up in point form, unless specified otherwise.
• All assignments are on the material that is to be covered in class on the date the assignment is due (see schedule).
The assignments will analyze the reading in terms of:
  • The theoretical perspective
  • The Intervention
  • The Therapist

Self-Nurture Research Journal
The journal is a record of your performance of simple self-nurture acts and an assessment of your own state of mind during that time.
  • Self-nurture activities
    o are to be selected every week from a different category from a table provided in the course syllabus.
  • Journal sections: There are 4 sections, including weekly entries.
  • An assessment of state of mind follows 5 10-point scale questions.
  • Journal’s activities are carried out for 4 weeks

A short essay
Consists of 4 to 5 pages of an analytical examination of any 3 theoretical approaches covered in this course.

A paper for Grading Option 2
This is an 8 to 12 pages analytical paper that compares three perspectives on the psychotherapeutic problem and change. These perspectives include a published autobiographical account and two theoretical approaches covered in class.
Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

(For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - Grading Scheme for 2018-19)

Late Work/Missed Tests or Exams

Students with a documented reason for missing a course test, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (Attending Physician Statement which can be found at: http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

- Assignment Submission: Due dates and times are specified on the class schedule. Earlier submissions may be made to the course secretary (BSB 101) and have to be date stamped.
- Late Assignments: Late assignments are not accepted without an officially satisfactory reason. Technical problems involving computer and printer are not acceptable reasons for missing these due dates.

Important New Information Regarding Missed Tests

For any missed tests or late assignments, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office.

HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the test/assignment.

*Note: You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as "W". The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.
Electronic Device Policy

Use of laptop and other electronics in the classroom is acceptable for special needs situations only.
Some references about the impediment this may cause for successful learning are:

Attendance Policy
Attendance is not required, but... you are responsible for the content covered in class in addition to required readings.

Academic Integrity for Students
York University takes academic integrity very seriously; please familiarize yourself with Information about the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty.

It is recommended that you review Academic Integrity information SPARK Academic Integrity modules. These modules explain principles of academic honesty.

Test Banks
The offering for sale of, buying of, and attempting to sell or buy test banks (banks of test questions and/or answers), or any course specific test questions/answers is not permitted in the Faculty of Health. Any student found to be doing this may be considered to have breached the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. In particular, buying and attempting to sell banks of test questions and/or answers may be considered as “Cheating in an attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation” (article 2.1.1 from the Senate Policy) and/or “encouraging, enabling or causing others” (article 2.1.10 from the Senate Policy) to cheat.

Electronic Devices During a Test/Examination
Electronic mobile devices of any kind are not allowed during a test or examination. Students are required to turn off and secure any electronic mobile device in their bag which is to be placed under the chair while a test/exam is in progress. Any student observed with an electronic device during a test/exam may be reported to the Undergraduate Office for a potential breach of Academic Honesty.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities
While all individuals are expected to satisfy the requirements of their program of study and to aspire to do so at a level of excellence, the university recognizes that persons with disabilities may require reasonable accommodation to enable them to do so. The York University Accessibility Hub is your online stop for accessibility on campus. The Accessibility Hub provides tools, assistance and resources. Policy Statement.
Policy: York University shall make reasonable and appropriate accommodations and adaptations in order to promote the ability of students with disabilities to fulfill the academic requirements of their programs.

The nature and extent of accommodations shall be consistent with and supportive of the integrity of the curriculum and of the academic standards of programs or courses. Provided that students have given sufficient notice about their accommodation needs, instructors shall take reasonable steps to accommodate these needs in a manner consistent with the guidelines established hereunder.
