

Psychology Electives

These are 3000 level Psychology courses not included in the above Core groups. Unless they have prerequisites, you are free to take them in your 2nd or later years. However, it is best not to fill your program up with electives too early, as you may find you need additional core courses to achieve your goals in term of Honours programs, grad school etc.