Course Description

This course is designed to provide you with a detailed introduction to major theories, research, and trends in the field of social psychology. Social psychology can be defined as “the scientific study of people’s thoughts, feelings, and behaviours regarding themselves and the actual, imagined, or implied presence of others”. Throughout this course, we will cover a wide range of topics of interest to social psychologists (and hopefully yourself!) including social cognition (how we think about ourselves and others), obedience and conformity, persuasion, intimacy and close relationships, and physical attraction.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate broad knowledge of social determinants of behaviour.
2. Describe and evaluate current theory and research in social psychology.
3. Understand and interpret principles of social psychology in everyday life.
4. Define causes of social behaviour from different perspectives.

Specific Learning Objectives

The first goal of this course is to provide you with the opportunity to learn more about the field of social psychology. We will examine how people influence, and are influenced by their social environments and how seemingly minor changes in the social situation can have an important effect on individuals’ thoughts, feelings, and behaviours. A second goal is to learn and understand how the scientific method is applied to, and become a critical consumer of, social psychological research. A third goal is to gain insight into yourself and those around you.

Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 89, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.)

For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - Grading Scheme for 2019-20

Missed Tests/Midterm Exams/Late Assignment:

For any missed tests, midterm exam or late assignments, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office.

HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the missed tests, midterm exam, or late assignments.

In addition to the online form, students documented reason for missed tests, midterm exam or late assignments such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., MUST submit official documentation (e.g. Attending Physician Statement).

IMPORTANT

There will be no make-up exams, except under extraordiary circumstances. If you miss an exam with no legitimate excuse, you will receive a grade of zero. If you have a legitimate reason (e.g. severe illness, etc.) for being absent from an exam, and have documentation to verify your absence, you may take a make-up exam in lieu of the missed exam.

Please note that I am extremely strict about the conditions that will allow you to write a make-up examination – nonetheless, you should contact the TA regardless of your reason if you have or will miss an examination. You must contact the TA within 48 hours of the exam and provide documentation in order to be permitted to take a make-up exam.

In the case of an emergency, email you TA(s) as soon as possible (CC: Professor). In this email, please (a) outline the reason for your absence, and (b) confirm that you have medical or other relevant documentation to support this reason, (c) provide all identifying information (e.g., full name, student number, course section, etc.).
IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT THE ATTENDING PHYSICIAN MUST BE WILLING TO STATE THAT YOU WERE MEDICALLY UNABLE TO TAKE THE EXAM AT THE SPECIFIC TIME THE EXAM WAS HELD AND YOU MUST PRODUCE THE DOCUMENT WITHIN 48
HOURS OF THE MISSED EXAM AND EMAIL YOUR TA (AND COURSE INSTRUCTOR) OR TELEPHONE THE PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT IN ADVANCE OF THE EXAM IF YOU KNOW THAT YOU WILL BE UNABLE TO TAKE. YOU MUST ALSO COMPLETE THE ONLINE FORM
WITHIN 48 HOURS FOR THE UNDERGRADUATE PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT TO REVIEW.

If you are very ill or facing extreme personal circumstances and are unable to get the required documentation, I highly recommend that you consider dropping the course.
