Course Prerequisite(s):
- HH/PSYC 1010 6.00 (Introduction to Psychology), with a minimum grade of C.

Course website: Moodle

Course Description:
This course develops university-level writing and communication ability. Students will write about psychological content; however, this course aims to develop general written communication skills that are broadly transferable. Emphasis will be placed on learning to write coherent arguments and explanations. Students will learn how psychological texts present information to effectively communicate with a reader. Students will develop the capacity to critique and improve their own writing. Critical thinking and logical reasoning skills are taught and practiced for the purpose of improving written communication. By analyzing exemplary psychological writing students will discover the form and structure of effective writing in Psychology. Readings and class discussions will increase understanding of how to write effectively. In-class writing exercises will be used to practice principles and ideas discussed. Providing feedback on the writing of peers will increase students’ capacity to reflect on and improve their own writing. Students will be guided, step-by-step, through the process of completing a larger writing assignment. Extensive feedback will be provided and multiple drafts of writing assignments will be completed. This course will prepare students for advanced writing assignments in upper year University courses and contribute to overall progress towards the advanced level of literacy expected of an educated citizen. At the end of the course, students will be able to develop a written argument on a controversial issue in psychology.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the basics of scientific writing.
2. Demonstrate effective written communication.
3. Demonstrate the ability to think critically about written communication.
4. Demonstrate the ability to find and evaluate credible scholarly literature.

Specific Learning Objectives

1. Demonstrate ability to cite sources appropriately according to APA standards.
2. Place a claim into context within the relevant academic literature.
3. Distinguish and effectively use different types of research literature (i.e. reviews, meta-analyses, individual studies etc.) to support an argument.
4. Demonstrate proficiency with spelling, punctuation, grammar and sentence structure.
5. Demonstrate ability to adhere to the conventions of academic writing in psychology.
6. Develop a clear written claim statement and provide evidence from scholarly sources to support it.
7. Structure academic writing to effectively communicate a claim and supporting detail with logical flow.
8. Explore, consider, and rebut alternative points of view in academic prose.
9. Consider and communicate the implications of a claim.
10. Give and receive peer feedback as part of a regular revision process.
11. Appreciate the difference between conjecture and interpretation of data.
12. Appreciate when empirical observation vs. theoretical analysis / synthesis is needed to support a claim.

Required Texts

- There is no required text for this course; required readings will be posted on Moodle.

General Class Structure:

- 50 mins: Lecture/Class discussion
- 25 mins: Classroom writing exercises (~ 200 words, submitted online for feedback)
15 mins: Provide feedback to peer on classroom writing exercises
20 min: Break
50 mins: Classroom work on Essay (i.e. in class peer review and instructor led guidance)

Homework per week:
- 30 minutes revising classroom writing exercise & uploading drafts and feedback
- 1.5 hours reading assigned books / articles
- 2 hours working on essay outside of class (essay components, and overall development)

Description of Assignments:

Writing Exercises:
During week 2 to week 8 you will spend ~25 minutes in class writing on a topic related to the lecture. What you write in class (i.e., first draft of the writing exercise) must be uploaded to Moodle by 10 pm the next day. Then, in the following class, you will take 15 minutes to read a peer’s first draft and provide feedback. Your feedback must be uploaded to the website by 10 pm the next day. Finally, you will spend ~30 minutes revising your writing based on the feedback you receive and upload a final draft by 10 pm on the day before the next class. All of this work will be done online on the Moodle site. Writing exercises will overlap so that you will be working on a different stage of up to 2 writing assignments per week. See your Writing Exercises Guide for more details. Given everything is being done online, you will still be able to participate if you have to miss class.

However, the deadlines for uploading drafts and feedback are fixed and cannot be extended. Therefore, if you are unable to submit a draft or feedback, for ANY reason, you will lose the opportunity to receive participation marks for the missed work. At the end of the course, you will be asked to select your Best Writing Exercise and submit it for evaluation. In appropriate circumstances, and with appropriate documentation, the deadline for the submission of your Best Writing Exercise can be extended.

For a complete guide to Writing Exercises and deadlines, see Writing Exercises Guide on Moodle.

Mini-reflections:
Mini-reflections will be completed in class for participation points. These reflections will be based on provided questions regarding your learning and experiences throughout the course, and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete. Missed mini-reflection points cannot be made up. Therefore, if you are unable to participate in a class, for whatever reason, you will lose the opportunity to receive marks for whatever you miss.

Essay and Essay Components:
Over the duration of the course you will write one argumentative essay on a controversial issue in psychology. This essay will be broken down into smaller assignments (Essay Components) that together will build to the final essay. Each week you will spend time in class working on your essay. You will also be expected to spend some time outside of class working on your essay. From week 2 through week 11, you will be expected to come to class with two hard copies of a particular component of your essay – one copy will be submitted to the instructor (for grading on a pass/fail basis) and one copy to be shared with your peer in class in order to receive feedback. The deadlines for bringing individual Essay Components to the class for feedback are fixed and cannot be extended. Therefore, if you are unable to participate in a class, for whatever reason, you will lose the opportunity to receive feedback.

You will also submit essay components via Moodle for TA/instructor feedback and graded credit on two occasions:

Essay components 1-4; due Feb 5 through Feb 12
Essay components 1-6; due Feb 26 through March 4

Please note that these assignments have rolling deadlines, which means submission is open from the beginning date to the end date of the submission period. It is up to you to manage your time appropriately and decide when the best submission time for you is. Due to the range of days provided for submission, no extensions will be granted on EC 1-4 and EC 1-6. (See below for details on submission of late work, special circumstances and required documentation).

For a complete guide to Essay Components and deadlines, see Essay Components Guide on Moodle.

Choosing an Essay Topic

Your essay for this class must be argumentative. This means that you will choose a controversial issue in psychology and choose a position that you will argue (and support with empirical evidence) regarding that topic.

Example essay topics*:

- Can people be addicted to video games?
- Are children with ADHD prescribed medication too often?
- Why has depression become such a widespread illness?
- Why are superhero movies so popular?
- Should marijuana be legalized?
- Should students be allowed to use laptops in the classroom?

*These topics are examples. You may use these or choose your own topic. Be aware that your topic must be a controversial issue that may be reasonably argued from two sides.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING PARTICIPATION: Writing Exercises, weekly Essay Components, and Mini Reflections make up your participation grade. The deadlines for these are fixed and cannot be extended. Therefore, if you are unable to submit a draft or feedback, for ANY reason, you will lose the opportunity to receive participation marks for the missed work. At the beginning of the course, you will be awarded 3 “free” points – the equivalent of missing about 1.5 classes. In light of this policy, requests to submit missed work will not be entertained.
Grading as per Senate Policy

The grading scheme for the course conforms to the 9-point grading system used in undergraduate programs at York (e.g., A+ = 9, A = 8, B+ = 7, C+ = 5, etc.). Assignments and tests* will bear either a letter grade designation or a corresponding number grade (e.g. A+ = 90 to 100, A = 80 to 90, B+ = 75 to 79, etc.) (For a full description of York grading system see the York University Undergraduate Calendar - calendars.students.yorku.ca/2016-2017/academic-and-financial-information/academic-services/grades-and-grading-schemes

Late Work/Missed Tests or Exams

Late assignments will be accepted up to one week after the deadline including weekend days. If your assignment is late, you will be deducted a late penalty of 5% per day, including weekend days. Late assignments will not be accepted after one week of the missed deadline (35% penalty).

Points missed for Writing Exercises, weekly Essay Components, and Mini-Reflections cannot be made up.

Students with a documented reason for missing a deadline, such as illness, compassionate grounds, etc., which is confirmed by supporting documentation (Attending Physician Statement which can be found at: http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/pdf/attending-physicians-statement.pdf) may request accommodation from the Course Instructor. Further extensions or accommodation will require students to submit a formal petition to the Faculty.

If you are missing a deadline due to illness, compassionate grounds, etc., you must contact me (conder@yorku.ca) to submit documentation within 48 hours of missing the deadline in order to have your work considered for grading without a late penalty.

Important New Information Regarding Missed Tests

For any missed tests or late assignments, students MUST complete the following online form which will be received and reviewed in the Psychology undergraduate office. HH PSYC: Missed Tests/Exams Form. Failure to complete the form within 48 hours of the original deadline will result in a grade of zero for the test/assignment.
